2019 EYH Conference Registration is NOW OPEN!

Expanding Your Horizons is a career day organized by the Math/Science Interchange. It is intended to inform young women about careers in math and science-related fields. The conference is aimed at girls in grades 5-8. Girls participate in hands-on workshops such as dissecting pig hearts, isolating DNA, and making colors with chemistry.

There are also workshops for parents, teachers and counselors about making math and science a career option for girls.

There is a $20 fee for each participant to cover lunch and materials. To register, please go to our website at Expanding Your Horizons Los Angeles .

Note that only paid registered participants may attend the conference. There is no on-site registration.
